

2019 Physiotherapy Symposium

Friday 18th October, 2019

University Centre for Rural Health 61 Uralba St Lismore

When: Friday 18th October, 2019

Time: 9am – 4.30pm

Where: University Centre for Rural Health, 61 Uralba St Lismore

About the Symposium: The annual Physiotherapy Symposium aims to provide local physiotherapists with opportunities to gain valuable professional development and network with their peers.

Program includes:

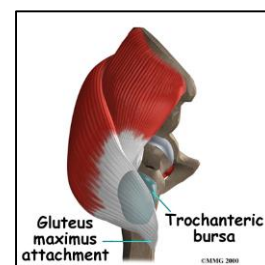

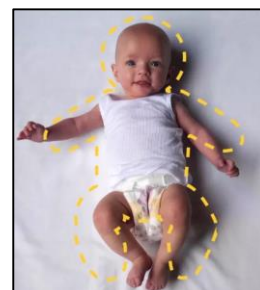

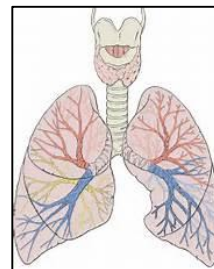

- ✓ Surgical Management of Pelvic Fractures - Dr Herwig Drobotz
- ✓ Non invasive ventilation - Dr Joe Churton
- ✓ New directions in Cardiorespiratory Physiotherapy
– Ms Nicole Harley
- ✓ Encephalitis - Dr Amit Mishra
- ✓ Management of post-orthopaedic surgery infections and antimicrobial resistance - Dr Sarah Coghill
- ✓ Prectl's General Movement Assessment – Ms Kerry Johnston-Doyle and Ms Margaret Stewart
- ✓ Greater Trochanteric Bursitis – Mr Anton Rogers
- ✓ Post Traumatic Amnesia testing – Ms Alison Gould
- ✓ Knee and Hip Arthritis Services – Mr Matt Hanley

Who should attend Physiotherapists working in the LHD and private practice across the Northern Rivers. Physiotherapy students are all welcome to attend.

Cost: Free – with thanks for all you do 😊

REGISTRATIONS ESSENTIAL in order to ensure adequate catering and resources for all.

Register here: <https://sydney.onestopsecure.com/onestopweb/PHYSYM19>

This Symposium is being funded by the NNSW LHD, and organised with support from the UCRH

Please email larisa.barnes@sydney.edu.au for more information.